Complicated law processes are likely to result, and in the meantime the city will have to pay for fixing up the tower twisted out of shape by a big wind.

There was a little malice up at the "five points" shortly after nine o'clock this morning—a few blows were struck, many hard curses uttered, and a large crowd rallied to see the fun. The appearance of an officer had rather an intimidating effect on the belligerents, and the performance was postponed without any serious results. Some of the parties will no doubt be pressed for an explanation of the affair before the municipal court.

The Southern Wisconsin Bee-keepers association convened in the county clerk's office at the court house this forenoon at ten o'clock. President C. O. Shannon, of Edgerton in the chair. "Willie A. son of Frank M. and Anna Smith, died Sept. 17th, 1885, aged 1 year 5 months, 11 days." The marble case in which the little one was buried in 1885 was in a good state of preservation, the varnish only showing signs of decay. The wooden box which covered the marble case was all decayed, and no sign of it was found in opening the grave. The plate over the face of the corpse was not removed, consequently the condition of the body could not be ascertained. The remains will be shipped by express to Rushford, Minn.

OBITUARY.

JOHN BAXTER.

The Chicago Tribune, of yesterday, contains the following:

"BAXTER—John Baxter passed away at 7:20 a. m., Sunday, in the 60th year of his age.

For the last fifteen years the deceased has been in the United States Railway Postal service, of which he was an honored member, beloved and esteemed by all his colleagues and friends. He served his country three years and three months in the Second Wisconsin Cavalry in the late rebellion; enlisting in the ranks he came home as First Lieutenant of his company. He leaves a wife, one son, and a daughter to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place at his late residence, No. 10 North Throop street, at 2 p. m., to-day. Friends of the family invited to attend.

"Janesville (Wis.) papers please copy."

Mr. Baxter, with his family, settled in Janesville in the spring of 1834, residing in the first ward, and was well known by our people. At the close of the war, he went to Waukegan and took charge of one of the departments in the Industrial school, a position he held for some time, and then entered the United States Railway Postal service, residing in Janesville until some five years ago when he removed his family to Chicago. The deceased had many friends in this city, who will be pained to read the above notice of his death.

LOVE TAYLOR.

News reached this city last evening of the death of Love Taylor, which occurred at his home in Clinton on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in the fifty-fifth year of his age.

Mr. Taylor was born in Buffalo, New York, June 16th, 1829, and came to Waukegan county, this state, in February, 1848, residing at Geneva lake for a number of years, removing thence to Richmond, and thence to Clinton in 1859, where he was engaged in the hotel business. He was one of the most popular hotel men in the west, and was known throughout the northwest as one of the jolliest of landlords. A few years ago he leased the Myers house in this city, but only remained at the head of that hotel for a short time when he moved back to Clinton, and resumed control of the hotel at that place. Always kind and agreeable to his fellow men, he made fast friends with all whom he met; he was ever ready to take and give a pleasant joke, and as a story teller, Love Taylor, of Clinton, bore the name of the "champion" throughout the western country. His was a pleasant life—ever looking upon the bright and sunny side of his surroundings—he appeared to all as the embodiment of good nature and cheer—and all, old and young, enjoyed his company. His death, although not wholly unexpected, is a severe blow to his family, consisting of his wife and three children, Mrs. Ella Ressegue, of Aurora, Illinois, Mrs. W. C. Ilette, and Miss Maud Taylor, residing at home. The funeral was held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

KITTY WELCH.

At nine o'clock this morning death ended the sufferings of Miss Kitty Welch at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Welch, West Milwaukee street, at the age of twenty-one years.

Miss Welch had been confined to her home for a long time, struggling with that terrible disease, consumption. She leaves, besides her sorrowing parents, a large circle of friends to mourn her death. The funeral will take place at St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning.

CLOSING OUT.

Many people in Janesville are reminded of the fact, frequently made public through the press of the city, that Mr. Fred Sonneborn, of the Star Clothing house, is selling out his entire stock of ready made clothing, and goods' furnishings, preparatory to his removal east, where he has already connected himself in business. When the announcement was first made that Mr. Sonneborn intended to close out his Janesville stock and remove from the city, many people accepted it as a mere advertising dodge, and paid no further attention to it. We are sorry to announce to all such that Mr. Sonneborn is in earnest, and that he is now disposing of his large stock of goods at ruinous prices, in order to close out his business, which he informs us, must be completed by the first of January. He has an immense stock of first class seasonable goods, all styles, which are offered at and below cost. Some of the rarest bargains in clothing can be obtained at the star clothing house. Nothing is reserved, as he is determined to close out the entire stock. Purchasers of good clothing can do no better than to call at the star, and examine the stock and bargains before making their purchases.

DELOIT REPUBLICANS.

Held a Large Meeting Last Night, and was Addressed by Ogden H. Pethers.

Special to the Gazette.

By far the largest audience that has assembled in the opera house this campaign to listen to a republican speaker, was that which filled the opera house last evening to listen to Ogden H. Pethers Esq., last evening.

The speaker was introduced by B. M. Malone Esq., and after a few preliminary sentences, prompted by the introductory remarks of Mr. Malone, began an address, which for more than two hours, held the audience, to a degree seldom attained by a political speaker. In every particular the speech was an admirable one, and by far the best that has been delivered in the city during this or one of our two preceding campaigns. In an original and masterly manner he reviewed the two great parties have been divided in the past, treating the opposition with a dignified courtesy, and employing none of the venomous slanders, but deliberately denouncing the cunningly wrought mis-constructions, with which democratic orators have regaled Deloit audiences within the past few weeks.

Touching the great issues of this campaign, "Protection vs. Free Trade," Mr. Pethers was very clear and forcible. Brushing aside sophistry, he showed as has never before been done here what free trade really is and what its effects upon a people are.

He, and what our protection laws are designed for, and what they cover and include. It was a plain, wonderfully clear unraveling of the intricate question which puzzles so many. He was no less effective and convincing in dealing with the question of railroad land grants, illustrating his remarks by displaying to the audience the map issued by the democratic committee which every Wisconsin man could see for himself, bore upon its face a lie. As we have stated, the speech was an admirable, grand one, an intellectual treat. As a gentleman remarked, "The very best that has been delivered in Deloit for a long time."

In the matter of oratorical embellishment, fully equal to Colonel Vilas, and in all that appeals to cool reason and dispassionate judgment, as much superior, as virtue is to vice. It stamped him most emphatically an orator and politician, thicker of whom Rock county as well as the state of Wisconsin, has every reason to be proud.

PERSONAL.

State Senator S. L. Lord was in the city a short time this afternoon.

The Rev. W. F. Warren, of Deloit, intends to remove to this city immediately after the presidential election.

Mrs. W. T. Brynton and family have gone to Washington, D. C., where Captain Brynton holds a position in the pension office.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McKee arrived home last evening, and will make their home with Mrs. Harriet McKee, North Main street.

Mrs. John M. Whitehead, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Illinois for the past two months, returned home on Saturday last.

Hon. Elihu Coleman, of Fond du Lac, was in the city a short time to-day, enroute for Clinton, where he will make a political speech this evening.

Miss Della Hughes, of Janesville, who has been spending the season at Waukegan, started to-day for Waterbury, Conn., where she will spend the winter.

Mr. Frank Phelps, of the fourth ward, returned to Madison university yesterday after a ten days absence caused by sickness. He resumes his studies much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Fredendall, who have been visiting Mr. Fredendall's father, Mr. J. C. Fredendall, in this city for several days, started yesterday for their home in Cheyenne, Wyoming territory.

Mr. I. G. Calkins, of South Jackson street, fourth ward, received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his son, Mr. W. W. Calkins, which occurred at Boise City, Idaho, on Sunday afternoon at one o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Conant, of the first ward, entertained a few old friends and neighbors last evening, with old time hospitality. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cheney, of Emerald Grove, were among the guests and contributed to the pleasure of the evening a few choice selections of music. The company was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Hayner, of Chicago.

Going to Clinton.

The Blaine and Logan Invariables held a special meeting at the club room last evening, and resolved to attend the grand republican rally in Clinton this evening. The Invariables will leave by special train on the Chicago and North-western road at 7 o'clock, and return home soon after the parade. The fare for the round trip is only fifty cents. This will probably be the last excursion of the campaign, and every member should make a point to attend. Clinton sent a large delegation to this city to participate in our demonstration on the 16th, and our club should now return the compliment.

The plug hat brigade will not attend as a brigade, but a good number will join the Invariable battalion.

Tobacco Sales.

50 cases, crop of 1882, Wisconsin Havana, at 10 cents.

Total cases, 1,195.

A convincing test of the merit of a medicine is in the public demand for it.

Most especially is this so when the disease is of a character that has stubbornly resisted the ordinary remedies. Rheumatism is one of that class, and it is evident that when the conquering agent has become once known to the public, the old remedy will be quickly proscribed in favor of the new one.

That discouraged sufferers may take new hope, such was the case in the town of Mt. Cleland, Ohio. J. L. Swingle, a druggist, wrote: "Please send me some advising matter. I have worked up quite a demand for Aithophora. It is doing wonders among the rheumatics."

Milton.

Remember that B. M. Malone, of Deloit, and J. C. Bartholf, of the Telephone, will address a republican meeting here on Monday evening, Nov. 3d. Let everybody make it a point to be present, and close the campaign with a rousing good meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Wheeler, of Allegany county, New York, who have been visiting friends here for a week or two, left for Milwaukee Friday, enroute for home.

Thursday and Friday were the first cold days of the season, the mercury marking 22 degrees Thursday night.

The republican rally at Milton Junction Wednesday evening, was largely attended. The address by Colonel Watson, of Milwaukee, was a magnificent effort, and being a live and well-posted temperance man, with a state reputation as a worker in that field, the audience was able to administer some telling blows to the third party fanatics.

Mrs. Patterson and Miss Gorty, of Brandon, the latter a graduate of the music department of Ripon college, were in the city for a few days, as the guest of Mr. J. Alexander, and the Misses Rodgers.

James C. Bartholf addressed a large audience of republicans here last night. His speech was a splendid effort—Watson's speech was a masterpiece.

We clip the following from the Mason City (Iowa) express and it not too late in the day, we in common with the many other Milton friends of the grocer, tender our hearty congratulations.

Matthews—the residence of the bride's parents, in Sparks, Wis., on Tuesday, September 30th, 1884, by Rev. Wm. H. Gerd, of LaCrosse, Mr. T. H. Alexander, of this city, and Miss Ella J. Hoyt, of the former place.

Mr. Alexander returned to the city with his bride last Sunday morning, and the happy couple are now settled down to house-keeping in this city where both are so well known and highly esteemed. We trust happiness and prosperity will be the lot of all in this community wishing for them long life, happiness and prosperity.

When you go to the polls next Tuesday, take along a load of Blaine men and see to it that you cast your vote in your own sincerity gets to the polls.

Capt. Hayner had a scare in the chemistry class Thursday. He will be careful how he pounds chemicals in a mortar hereafter.

A large force of men were at work on the Mineral Point Division Sunday, laying steel rail west from this village.

Frank B. Cole, telegraph operator in the employ of St. Paul, and formerly at New Hampton, Iowa, was at home this week visiting his parents and brothers and sisters.

With Ely's Cream Balm a child can be treated for throat pain, croup, and with perfect safety. Try the remedy. It cures Catarrh, Hay Fever and Colds in the head.

Apply only to nostrils with the finger. The restoration to health of our child was considered uncertain. When the child was eight months old, for fourteen months was not able to breathe through his nostrils, became emaciated. U. on using Ely's Cream Balm his difficulty was removed; he breathes naturally. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smith, Oregon, N. Y.

From Colonel G. H. Mackay, 324 Iowa factory: "I have derived more benefit from Ely's Cream Balm than anything else I have ever tried. I have now been using it for three months and am experiencing no trouble from Catarrh whatever. I had been a sufferer for twenty years. O. H. Mackay, Sigourney, Iowa, Feb. 20, 1882."

The Stinger Cougher Yet.

Baltimore, Pa., Oct. 28.—The owners of the Armstrong well No. 5, themselves deceived as to the probable outcome of the well, concluded to put in a fifty quart shot, but they failed to have a casing laid on when the well responded violently, throwing twenty feet above the derrick. They finally succeeded in putting on a casing head and the last hour's gasp showed a production of 400 barrels an hour, a rate of 3,000 per day.

Discharged Her Bangs.

New York, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Alice S. Bangs has sued for a divorce from her husband, Frank C. Bangs, the noted actor. The referee in the case has reported favorably. Mrs. Bangs is a daughter of Singer, the late well known machine manufacturer. She was on the stage as Agnes Hamilton before her marriage. Mrs. Bangs lived with her only one day.

To the Victims Before the Spots.

London, Oct. 28.—The Morning Post, a Conservative organ, recently complained to Mr. Gladstone that it did not receive its share of government printing. Sir Gladstone replied that the expenditures were only given papers supporting the government. The Post publishes the correspondence, and it is likely to cause something of a sensation.

The Honors to Montefiore.

London, Oct. 28.—The Montefiore centenary continues to excite public attention. Queen Victoria has telegraphed Sir Moses Montefiore congratulating him upon the completion of the 100th year of a life noted for loyalty and philanthropy. The venerable gentleman has already received 389 letters and 943 telegrams of congratulation from all parts of the world.
